MAN OF MANY WIVES.

The careless failure of an Emporia Kansas, woman to get a legal separation from her husband has just cheated Owen Reeves, seventy-seven years old, out of his fifteenth wedding.

Fourteen weddings and fourteen partings comprise the domestic achievements of Mr. Reeves, or "Speedy," as he is called in Lebo.

It was after a wearisome three years and four months of bachelorhood that Mr. Reeves felt the germ of love stir in his heart. Straightway he went to E. L. Traylor, cashier of the Lebo State Bank, and directed Traylor to engage a tender note to the far one inviting her to be mistress of his two-room cottage and his income, consisting mainly of a pension of $15 monthly.

The woman read and capitulated. Two days later Reeves received a note from her asking him to call. In Emporia Reeves was fondly received. After an ecstatic few moments of conversation and slight "widow" let slip the unfortunate admission on that she had a living husband, but no divorce. Then Reeves decided to end the negotiating.

"When a man decides he likes a woman he should pop the question right away," Reeves says.

"Never once did I spark any woman more than five times. And as to sparking, it should never be done in the dark and in secrecy. Be straightforward and open. I have proposed several times right in company."

"Yes, marriage is a great thing. Every man needs the companionship of a good woman, and I'm going to have another one as soon as I can get her."

"Preachers married me most of the time, but I have been married a few times by quires and justices of the peace. My first wedding was at the age of fourteen. A marriage ceremony, like a courtship, should be a very simple, quick affair. My wives never objected because I had been married so often. I told them all before the wedding of the other Mrs. Reeveses. They never seemed displeased, and I always got along fine with my mothers-in-law."

CARNEGIE'S GIFT TO UNIVERSITY.

The $50,000 promised the endowment fund of the University of Virginia of $1,000,000 by Andrew Carnegie was received by Eppa Hunton, Jr., in Richmond, yesterday morning. Mr. Carnegie sending a check for the amount drawn on the Home Trust Company, of New York, N. Y. It was deposited in the Bank of Richmond by Mr. Hunton, who is president of the Alumni Board of Trustees.

The movement for the $1,000,000 endowment fund was begun several years ago, when Dr. Alderman was elected president. Mr. Carnegie agreed to give half if the university got the other half.

President Alderman immediately started to work to raise the $500,000. Liberal-minded men throughout the south and east responded generously to his call. Half of the sum was raised up to November 1, 1908, and in that month $100,000 more was subscribed. A few weeks ago President Alderman went to New York, and there he succeeded in securing the remaining $150,000, making the announcement February 20th that the first half was complete. I did not take Mr. Carnegie long to send the other half.

The $500,000 given by Mr. Carnegie will become the permanent endowment of at least six schools in the university—the school of engineering, the school of political economy and political science, two chairs in the school of law, the school of English and the school of pathology.

GIRL WANTED.

A Rockland County paper of recent date contains this advertisement: Wanted—Girl or woman to wash, iron, serve meals and do general housework for two persons; eight months and bath to keep clean; wages $5 a week every Saturday night to one that can give satisfaction. Work must be done according to specification; not a hard place; don't apply unless you are competent. One afternoon a week off, besides every Sunday afternoon and evening, but must return and get supper every other Sunday. "Gentleman friend" may be entertained, but not fed, seven nights a week from 7:30 to 11, no offense or later; this gives one whole day—24 hours a week—for spooning, which ought to suffice until after matrimony; then you'll be lucky to get one day off a month. If the restrictions seem unreasonable, do not consider it."

NECKLACE RECOVERED.
While trying to sell Albert Edholm, an Omaha, Nebraska jeweler, a necklace containing 60 pearls, valued by jewelers at $50,000, John D. Davis, a Greek, was arrested yesterday. The police had recovered from the New York police department the description of the necklace which was said to have disappeared from the Kolcherbocker Hotel, in that city, November 26 last.

Davis said he was formerly employed by the Kolcherbocker. He said he was sweeping refuse from the sidewalk, and as he brushed it over the curb he saw the necklace lying in the gutter with some rubbish.

The New York police when notified last night of the arrest, in Omaha, of John Davis, having in his possession a valuable pearl necklace, said the jewels were probably those lost by Mrs. Otto O. Heitz, in or near the Hotel Kolcherbocker, on the night of November 26 last.

For Diseases of the Skin.
Nearly all diseases of the skin such as eczema, tetter, salt rheum and barbers' itch, are characterized by an intense itching and smarting, which often makes life a burden and disturbs sleep and rest. Quick relief may be had by applying Chamberlain's Salve. It allays the itching and smarting almost instantly. Many cases have been cured by its use. For sale by W. F. O'Leighon & Co., and Richard Gibson.
